After AAE receives your documents and verifies your references and qualifications, we will conduct a property/housing facility evaluation. The property/housing evaluation is conducted to ensure the facility is sufficient for the health, safety, and well-being of the AAE equine(s). This evaluation begins with a review of photographs of your property/housing facility. Representative photos of your equine/boarding facility should accompany your application and agreement. Representative photos should include at least 12-15 photos including an overview of facility barns, stalls, paddocks, pastures, arena/round pens, shelters, run-in sheds, tree cover, perimeter fencing, cross-fencing, feed water sources, feeders, feed storage areas, equipment storage, tack storage, wash rack, and other equines, as applicable. AAE may specify other items, as needed. Additionally, include photographs (minimum 8-10) of the horse trailer and truck you will use for transport, including front, rear, left side, right side, interior areas, floor, doors, hitch, receiver, tires, truck, etc.

Any future rehoming of the equine MUST first be approved in writing by AAE, by completion of AAE's Adoption/Foster Package and subsequent adopter(s) must agree to the terms of the AAE's Adoption/Foster Agreement.
